Edelstein's Gems

-by Ron Edelstein, LSM LocSec

Well, welcome to the New Year. If you are reading this then you survived the holiday season and the transition according to our arbitrary time system from one year to the next. It's been custom in many societies to take a new year as a fresh start with resolution or simply reappraisal of past life and evaluate what changes should be made going forward. Some people seem to be satisfied with the way things are and don't bother. Either way is good if it fits you. Personally, I sort of do that every morning when I get up. I've got a lot better chance to make a change in one day than I can project for a whole year. If you do the best you can every day, the year will pretty much take care of itself.

This is likely to be my last column as the Lonestar Mensa LocSec. I've mostly enjoyed the last two years in this position, but I'm quite happy to hand it off to someone else. It's funny, trying to manage an all-volunteer nonprofit group is much harder than managing a department or group in a large company or a military unit, and I've done both. You don't have the same system of rewards and disciplines available to you that a business executive or military officer has. You have to deal with each person's individual strengths and challenges more carefully, walk a thin line between over-managing and not giving enough guidance. Those things are true in the other venues too, but they are absolutely critical in the volunteer organizations, were everyone is getting paid the same thing...nothing! LSM is a large group, as American Mensa groups go. Last I saw (two days before I wrote this) we were #30 out of around 300 or so nation wide. We have nearly 600 members, but nearly everything that make the group work is done by about two dozen people. Whatever their foibles, they are willing to show up, roll up their sleeves and do the work. Some know I've expressed frustration, exasperation and other emotions at times, but I want every one of those who turn out and show up to know that I appreciate their efforts to make LSM a going organization. I hear complaints from time to time about the boring programs or "nothing going on interesting". My answer is, if you don't see what you want, jump in and make what you want to happen. Complaining from the sidelines will not get you what you want. Make it happen!

So folks, I'll still be around, but now I get to sit in the sidelines and shoot spitballs at the leaders. But I'll be volunteering because I enjoy Lonestar Mensa and want it to keep going. Join me.

Happy 2010! Ron Edelstein Lonestar Mensa LocSec

Bylaws Amendment Balloting Results

-submitted by Ron Edelstein

The votes have been cast and validated. The results of the by laws voting were:

- ★ 24 votes cast
- $\star$  no votes disqualified or rejected for irregularities

* 13 votes in favor of adopting the new, proposed by laws

★ 11 votes against

Result: the new by laws passed. The results of the election and the by laws will now be forwarded to the National Office, which will then inform us when they will become effective. I'll publish a notice when we receive that word.

-by Roger Durham, RVC Region 6

North Texas Mensa's Regional Gathering in Dallas was, as usual, a smash hit. In addition to the folks from other groups in Region 6, like Mensa 76, East Texas, South Texas, Lone Star, Gulf Coast, Permian Basin, Baton Rouge, Central Oklahoma, and New Mexico, there were visitors from Arizona, Florida, Kentucky, North Carolina, Vermont, and Washington State. More than 150 Ms in all – what a party! RG Chair Carol Hilson did her usual superb job of organization, Kevin Buchanan's Hospitality was memorable, and Karen Brack provided an incredible array of eclectic programs, while new member Anne White put together the most popular RG dance I've seen in years. If you missed it, plan to come next year. And, don't forget Gulf Coast Mensa's 2010 RG, coming up over Memorial Day Weekend in Houston.

The proposed Mensa cruise in March, unfortunately, had to be cancelled due to lack of interest, but the train trip to the Annual Gathering has drawn numerous responses and I look forward to seeing many of you aboard the Texas Eagle next summer. I'll be working with Amtrak to finalize plans for the trip during the next few weeks, and by February I should be able to give you all the details.

Turning from fun to serious business, it's almost time to begin thinking about American Mensa's next national election in 2011. We'll be appointing the national Nominating Committee soon, and I hope to see our Region well-represented. If any of you would like to serve on the national NomComm this time around, let your LocSec know right away, as I will be asking all of our Region's LocSecs for names of potential Nom-Comm members before the middle of January. Loc-Secs, please be thinking about who in your group has been active in American Mensa, knows lots of other members, and would be a good choice for the Nom-Comm. It would be preferable, though not required, if NomComm members can commit to attending the AG in Michigan, as there will be planning meetings and candidate interviews taking place at that time.

And, speaking of LocSecs, many groups recently went through local elections and have new officers taking over this month. My congratulations (or condolences) and best wishes to all of you who are newly elected to a leadership position in your local group. Please do not hesitate to contact me (rvc6@us.mensa.org) if I can be of assistance in any way.

1/4 of Lonestar Mensans are Electronic! -submitted by Helen Siders

The number of Lone Star Mensans who have opted in to replace their paper newsletter with the electronic email version remains stable at around 25%.

If you wish to join this hip group, go to the Profile Update page located at www.us.mensa.org/profileupdate. While you are at it, please verify that your email address is current.

Our USPS postage bill is less and our volunteer tasks of preparing the paper newsletters for snail mailing have decreased. Fewer trees are being used to get the Armadillo Literary Gazette to you. Thank you.

December ExComm Minutes

-submitted by Don Drumtra, ExComm Secretary

The regular monthly meeting of the Lonestar Mensa Executive Committee (ExComm) convened at 6:00 PM, December 2, 2009, at the Northwest Community Center, 2913 Northland Dr., Austin, TX. Attending were: President Ron Edelstein Chairman; Vice-President Don Drumtra Secretary; Treasurer Patty Drumtra; Members-at-Large Paul Anderson, Kathie Lawler, and John Neemidge; Vice President elect Barbara Wilson; and Members at Large elect Helen Siders, and Danny South. The ExComm adopted without debate the agenda and the Nov. 4 ExComm minutes published in the December Armadillo Literary Gazette (ALG) page 6.

Ron announced that John Pfeiffer was appointed interim Proctor Coordinator and that he had accepted Mike Makuch's resignation from the Programs Officer position.

Don reported the results of the balloting on the bylaws amendment. All 24 votes received were counted. The vote was 13 for and 11 against. Ron declared the amendment passed.

Patty reported that at the end of November that LSM was in good financial health. The ExComm adopted the report without debate. Don presented a budget for 2010. The ExComm adopted the budget as Special Rule, ASIE 2009-13, subject to review of the incoming ExComm. The ExComm tabled a motion to adopt bank signature authority for the new officers until the bylaws implementation date is known.

Kathie, Communications Chair, reported that the last mailing went well but there were delays in getting the newsletter to the printer on time. She scheduled a Com-Comm meeting after the ExComm meeting to revise the News Cycle Standing Rule.

Education Committee provided no report.

Ron reported for the Membership Committee that testing is expected to begin in January.

Ron reported for the Symposia Committee that the December meeting / Holiday Party is scheduled for December 12.

John, LonestaRG 2009 Chair, reported that the RG report was being completed. The ExComm adopted the RG Treasurer's report without debate.

John also reported that LonestaRG 2010 participation increased to 23 registrations and $840. LSM is still looking for an RG chair.

The ExComm took the following action:

- (1) Extended the meeting to 7:30 PM;
- (2) Adopted a Standing Rule, ASIE 2009-14, scheduling dates, times, and locations all regularly scheduled meetings in 2010. There was considerable debate on the meeting date, time, and location time for the ExComm meetings and the date is scheduled for review based on the bylaws implementation date.
- (3) Tabled a motion to adopt a motion concerning election reports after considerable debate.
- (4) Briefly discussed rules for write-in candidates for elections. Since there are no write-ins allowed in the new bylaws, no rules were proposed.

Don announced that all reports and ASIEs were available on the Website and the next regular monthly Ex-Comm meetings were scheduled for 6-6:50 PM, January 13 and February 10 at Souper Salad subject to change based on the bylaws implementation date December 2.

The meeting adjourned at 7:30 PM.
